

“LET IT SING” $500 COVID-19 Relief Fund FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE APPLICATION FOR MUSICIANS

The Christopher Conner Foundation may offer the “Let It Sing” $500 financial assistance grant for South Carolina musicians whose primary income is based on playing music and who have lost income due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Foundation may offer “Let It Sing” grants for individual musicians in the amount of $500 at the discretion of the Conner Foundation Board of Directors.

Applicants for the Let It Sing financial assistance must be a resident of South Carolina. The applicant must be a musician by profession and provide a reference history of past gigs. Applicants may or may not have a second job, however, the primary source of income must come from playing gigs in bars, restaurants, and/or music venues.

Eligibility Requirements and Procedures

Applicants must be able to document participation in the following areas:

- Minimum two years in the musical field
- Performed in public venues
- Plays a musical instrument, is a songwriter, or is a vocalist
- Currently lost income from cancelled gigs due to COVID-19

Required Documentation:

- Application for Covid-19 Relief
- Music industry background documentation
- Proof of cancelled gigs

Once the application is received by The Christopher Conner Foundation, the Board of Directors Staff will contact the applicant to review the application. The applicant will be notified of the committee’s decision as soon as possible. At its sole discretion, the Christopher Conner Foundation reserves the right to deny or approve financial assistance and the amount of assistance provided.
